NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF SPECIALTY PHARMACY

2018 NASP Annual Meeting and Educational Conference Specialty Pharmacy Law Conference - September 24, 2018

Overview

This unique, 1-day conference is intended for general counsel and in-house counsel for national and regional specialty pharmacies, practicing attorneys in health care law, compliance officers, and other health care executives concerned with the legal and regulatory requirements and extraordinary complexities of owning and operating a specialty pharmacy. We are pleased to welcome Michael R. Hess, JD, lead, Specialty Pharmacy & Pharmaceuticals Practice Group, Bass Berry & Sims as this year's conference chair.

The theme of this year's conference is "Managing Relationships: The Legal Considerations, Requirements and Implications of Building and Operating a Specialty Pharmacy." Each session will be presented by a panel of legal health care experts which will offer a comprehensive and cohesive view of the specialty pharmacy relationships with payers, referral sources, pharmacy employees, pharma, regulatory agencies, and investor.

We are pleased to welcome speakers from the following law firms:

- Quarles & Brady
- Bass, Berry & Sims
- BakerHostetler
- Duane Morris
- Brown & Fortunato
- Ogletree Deakins
- Frier Levitt
- Barclay Damon
- Pepper Hamilton

Updates will be provided on key prosecutions, legal settlements, audits and inspections, direct and indirect remuneration, and payment rates. Other covered topics are any willing pharmacy issues; contract negotiations and network termination; fraud, waste, and abuse; Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act compliance; the opioid epidemic; government investigation trends; general health care fraud statute and federal and state guidance; the importance of a compliance program; and the requirements and factors to consider when building a saleable pharmacy pretransaction and post transaction. This program will offer continuing legal education credit and pharmacist continuing education credit.
